Foosball Table

Description

Stadium is a Foosball Table, appreciated not only for its contemporary design but also for its functionality. Vismara transforms a common product into a refined example of top Italian design and quality.

Its uniqueness relies in every single detail, from the gold- and chrome-plated players to the little cork balls. This product functionality, rather than being compromised, is actually enhanced by some technical features; this is why Stadium is seen, first of all, as a professional game table by all the foosball enthusiasts.
