Home Bar

Description

Functionality and aesthetic perfectly merge in a bar furniture characterized by timeless class and extreme refinement. Hemingway Home Bar is composed of two parts: a wall element and a free standing counter. The first one is equipped with tempered glass shelves and compartments with soft closing doors. The working niche is led enlightened, equipped with two electrical sockets and decorated with precious materials. There is also the possibility to add a professional wine cellar with double temperature regulation to perfectly keep your finest wines.

The counter is enriched with suede fabric insert; the inner space and the top are covered by tempered glass giving a sense of lightness to the entire structure.
